Mrs. Mary Stuart Maury

Dear Stuart:

I didn't have the opportunity to talk with you at Jack's memorial service which was done with the grace and dignity that Jack's distinguished life deserved. I do want to express to you our sadness and grief at the loss of Jack, who not only was an intelligence officer par excellence but also a true friend of the Agency.

His contribution to this country and for which it stands was enormous. Those of us who had the pleasure to serve with Jack are indeed proud of that association. We miss him greatly.

I hope this letter finds you well and in good spirits. You have our best wishes and prayers.

With warm regards.

Sincerely,

John N. McMahon
